STUDENT DEMOCRATS READY FOR CAMPAIGN

Local Organization Perfects Plans to Help State Committee.

Club Will Have Headquarters on Ninth Street Until After Election.

The Students' Democratic Club of the University will begin active work tomorrow for the current campaign. both state and national, and will have south of Broadway. A. C. Bayless, president of the club, is enthusiastic over the outlook for a Democratic victory in November

"We are co-operating with the State Democratic Committee in every possible way," Bayless says, "and expect to register many student votes in November. The executive committee met last night. Definite plans were laid for the coming campaign and you can depend upon us to exert every effort to keep Missouri in the Democratic column.

The officers of the club are: President, A. C. Bayless; first vice-president, J. P. Collins; second vice-president, W. W. Humphrey; third vicepresident, C. G. Forshey; secretarytreasurer, B. T. Hurwitz. W. W. Humphrey, former second vice-president, was graduated last June from

A canvass banner bearing the inscription, "Students' Democratic Headquarters. Register Here," will be hung outside the headquarters.

The executive committee, consisting of the officers of the club, together with Roy H. Hall, D. M. Warren, A. Flem Baker, F. J. Stablein, W. K. Gardner, Frank H. King, H. C. Lustig, H P. Saunders, C. N. Davis, G. C. Black and T. A. Walker, Jr., will have charge of the campaign. Members of this committee will be present at the club headquarters until election is over.

Membership cards in the organization may be purchased from any member of the executive committee for 50 cents. President Bayless declares that at least two-thirds of the men students in the University are Democrats and expects to secure most of them as members.
